

An evening with the MARAUDERS

Join the Marauders to celebrate the first-ever Dining with Champions, a dinner and auction with proceeds supporting student-athlete scholarship and program needs. The signature event will recognize our finest student-athletes and celebrate the accomplishments that could not be achieved without the support of friends, family, alumni and corporate sponsors. Millersville Athletics is on the rise, and we invite you to help us build our future by spending an evening with the Marauders.

Anthony Robles

Anthony Robles is a three-time all-American wrestler who won the 2010-11 NCAA individual wrestling championship in the 125-pound weight class despite being born with only one leg. A graduate of Arizona State University with a degree in business communication, he was also awarded the 2011 NCAA "Best Wrestler of the National Tournament" award.

In 2011, Robles was the recipient of the "Jimmy V Perseverance Award" at the ESPN ESPYs and also received the NFL "Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award." Robles is a Nike athlete, the first signed to an agreement after having retired from active participation in a sport. He is currently ESPN's NCAA wrestling analyst and expert, and is the wrestling analyst for the Pac-12 Network as well. He was inducted to the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2012 and is the author of Unstoppable: From Underdog to Undefeated: How I Became a Champion. In 2013, President Obama appointed Robles as a member of the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition. Additionally, Robles was a member of the Presidential Delegation to the 2014 Sochi Paralympic Games.

Robles lives in Chandler, Arizona. The script for a feature film chronicling his life story has been completed; the film is currently in preproduction.
