

Membership - PWCA – Pennsylvania Wrestling Coaches Association: Why become a member?

- Coach of the Year Recognition- The PWCA recognizes District and State level Head Coaches of the year, as well as, JV and Jr. High Coaches of the Year.
- Student Athlete Recognition- Over 250 PA High School wrestlers were recognized on the PWCA All-Academic team last year. This is a great way to celebrate our student-athletes and it allows college coaches to track recruits in our talent-rich wrestling state.
- PWCA Scholarship Opportunities- Last year, 7 PA H.S. wrestlers earned scholarships (ranging from $500-$1000) through our PWCA Scholarship Essay Program.
- PWCA Coaches are well represented on the PIAA Wrestling Steering Committee. The PWCA has developed a very solid rapport with the PIAA, which has allowed our organizations to work together to keep Pennsylvania wrestling strong.
- PWCA Hall of Fame- The PWCA's annual HOF banquet takes place at the Ramada Inn in State College, PA each spring. Last year's HOF inductees were: Bob Bach, Eric Brugel, Andy Fitch, Tim Giel, John Heacock, Brian Hills, Jim Horner, Joe Kiefer, Trap McCormack, Bob Parker, Barry Snyder, Craig Turnbull, and Ernie Yates
- PWCA Convention- Our Annual PWCA Convention is one of the premier wrestling clinics in the nation! This year's PWCA Convention featured: John Smith, Jake Varner, Rob Koll, Quinten Wright, Scott Moore, Jordan Oliver, and Tim Flynn. In addition, seminars by: Jon Kolb (former Pittsburgh Steeler)/Tanner Kolb (WVU strength coach), Bald Eagle Area athletic trainer Scott Devore, and Wrestling Mindset training by the Zanetti brothers rounded out an awesome event.
